10 DAYS TO CANCEL

If you decide this insurance does not suit your needs, you can cancel it and get a partial or full refund of your premium in the 10 days following your purchase.

Who can be insured

Any person who is between 31 days and 79 years of age at the time of purchase and who is not covered by a public health insurance plan. The person must also be:

- An immigrant or permanent resident waiting for coverage by a public health insurance plan or have completed the steps to obtain such status, or
- A foreign worker in Canada with a work permit, or
- A foreign student in Canada with a study permit, or
- A Canadian citizen returning home after a long absence, or
- A super visa applicant or holder in Canada, or
- A visitor to Canada.

Allowable purchase period

The contract must be purchased:

- Before arriving in Canada or within the 30 days that follow your arrival, or
- While you are covered by a similar insurance in Canada or within the 30 days that follow the end of this coverage.

Where are you covered

Visitors to Canada insurance applies during your trip to Canada and during side trips outside Canada.

Side trips outside Canada

To qualify as a side trip, the trip:

- Must begin and end in Canada
- Must take place entirely during the term of the contract
- Must not exceed 30 days, otherwise the protection is suspended until the return to Canada
- Must not take place in your country of permanent residence.

In addition, the total duration of all side trips must never exceed 49% of the contract term, otherwise the insurance will be considered null and void.

Before enrolling

- Make sure that every person you wish to insure meets all of the insurance's eligibility criteria. For more information, please refer to the Visitors to Canada policy, page 3.
- Do not hesitate to contact your distributor if you have any question or doubt.

WARNING

Exclusions

The Emergency Medical Care coverage included in this product contains exclusions and limitations. It is important to be aware of them before purchasing the insurance.

If you are insured by a contract that you hold with another company for the first part of your trip, it is important you understand that the exclusions it contains may differ from the ones included in the Blue Cross Visitors to Canada insurance contract.

Pre-existing medical conditions

Exclusions related to your pre-existing medical conditions apply differently depending on your age. Exclusions due to pre-existing medical conditions could lead to excluding:

- Certain medical conditions you have suffered from in the course of your life, and
- The medical conditions that are unstable during the 3 or 6 months preceding the effective date of coverage.

To read about the Exclusions due to pre-existing medical conditions that apply to you, please refer to the Visitors to Canada policy, pages 10-11.

Other exclusions

The policy also contains other exclusions. Below are a few examples, but make sure to refer to the insurance policy for the complete list of exclusions.

- Pregnancy, childbirth, or related complications
- High-risk sports or activities
- Suicide and self-inflicted injury
- Use of alcohol, drugs and other intoxicating substances
- Illegal act
- Act of war and civil unrest

For the complete list of Other exclusions, refer to the Visitors to Canada policy, pages 11-13.

COST OF INSURANCE

The premium is calculated based on:

- The age of the insured persons
- The duration of the trip
- The selected coverage amount
- The selected deductible amount, if applicable.
