

Dear valued partner,

The table of standards for self-employed workers and salaried employees working from home was recently updated.

EASING OF CERTAIN STANDARDS FOR HOMEWORKERS

From now on, separate access, visible sign and foot traffic observed are no longer required for all occupational categories.

For more details, see the Standards for self-employed workers and salaried employees working from home.

New standards for Home Childcare Providers

Educators with certification are now subject to the same rules as other professions in occupational category 2A.

For more details, see the documents for Home Childcare Providers:
